City Profiles

Port Charlotte, FL

More than 165 miles of man-made waterways meander around this city and into Charlotte Harbor leading to the Gulf of Mexico. It's a low-cost haven with baseball action and an eight-acre cultural center.

Austin, TX

Home of the University of Texas, this city is renowned as the "live music capital of the world." Its suburbs are attractive to retirees, too, with lakeside settings and Texas Hill Country views.

Roanoke, VA

This Blue Ridge locale offers its own orchestra and opera house, with added benefits of affordable housing, a growing hospital system and nearby Smith Mountain Lake.

Salem, OR

Pursue a love of fine wines or outdoor recreation in this state capital, where vineyards meet forests and wildlife areas. The arts flourish in museums, galleries, local colleges and gardens.

Features

North to Canada

This sampler of Canadian cities presents places popular among U.S. retirees and second-home owners seeking cooler climes with a dash of foreign flavor.

The Compact-Home Trend

Today's homebuyers are looking for smaller, more efficient layouts — and builders are delivering designs that retain high quality while eliminating wasted space.
