

WHERE to RETIRE

July/August 2010
Editorial Calendar

Closing Date: April 1, 2010
Publication Date: June 1, 2010

SPECIAL 2010 SIX-PART SERIES

Ready for the Rebound – Part Four 50 Hot Spots for Retirement Real Estate Discounts

In this issue, we focus on 10 fabulous four-season retreats — from bayside Portland, ME, to mountain-view Boise, ID — with year-round amenities and tempting deals in homes today.

Plus...

City Profiles

Fairhope, AL

On the eastern shore of Mobile Bay, Fairhope has a beautifully landscaped downtown and a Southern feel, with moss-clad oak trees. Founded in 1894 by an experimental economist, it offers retiree-friendly tax rates and an overall low cost of living.

Northampton, MA

In the arts-and-culture mecca of “Noho,” you will find monthly gallery walks, frequent festivals and the storied Academy of Music Theatre. It’s the heart of the “knowledge corridor” of western Massachusetts, with Smith College here and four other schools nearby.

Ponte Vedra/Ponte Vedra Beach, FL

Noted for its golf courses and tennis courts, the Ponte Vedra area on the Atlantic coast combines beachfront living and new inland developments, all in a natural environment only minutes from the big-city amenities of Jacksonville.

Arizona’s White Mountains

Show Low and Pinetop-Lakeside, in the national forestlands of east-central Arizona, are rich in Wild West history and Native American culture. They’re also the hub of a popular vacation area, with hiking, boating, fishing, skiing and camping.

Features

8 Healthy Havens

With highly regarded hospitals and clinics, these places put you close to today’s leaders in advanced medical care. Our selection presents a range of lifestyles, from smaller cities to large metro areas with options for both urban and suburban living.

Relocating Solo

Loving the single life? So are these retirees, who share their tips for finding the perfect site to meet new people and make the most of the retirement.

Departments

Financial Consultant: Sales taxes can take a hefty bite out of your budget. Check our state-by-state guide to see how your proposed retirement locale taxes your purchases.

Best Neighborhood: Anderson Creek Club, Spring Lake, NC