

WHERE to RETIRE

September/October 2010
Editorial Calendar

Closing Date: June 1, 2010
Publication Date: July 30, 2010

SPECIAL 2010 SIX-PART SERIES

Ready for the Rebound – Part Five 50 Hot Spots for Retirement Real Estate Discounts

In this issue, we examine eight lively college towns — from Tallahassee, FL, to Madison, WI — where lifelong-learning classes and cultural and sports events complement great housing deals.

Plus...

City Profiles

Venice, FL

Perks of this Gulf Coast gem include 10 miles of trails along the Intracoastal Waterway, a symphony and theater with live productions and stylish architecture that invokes its Italian namesake.

Port Townsend, WA

Protected by the National Register of Historic Places, this Victorian seaport now is known as an artist's haven. Free outdoor concerts, monthly gallery walks and Centrum, a performance venue with studios, anchor the active scene.

Ocean County, NJ

This region with a seaside strip of resort towns is more than a spot for summer fun. Besides beaches, boating events, golf courses and state parks for hiking, Ocean County has multiple master-planned communities.

Lafayette, LA

The heart of French Louisiana doubles as a festival city, where zydeco music and Cajun and Creole cooking headline events throughout the year. Its tech-savvy reputation and an overall low cost of living add to its appeal.

Features

8 Wonderful Walkable Towns

Save on gasoline in these locales, which provide restaurants, shops and entertainment opportunities within easy walking distance of residential options.

Communities Going Green

Check out the latest in homes certified to cut your costs and the growing number of green communities today.

Departments

Financial Consultant: We take an inside look at buying a new home, providing tips to help get the best deal with all the upgrade choices and enticing incentives.

Best Neighborhood: Robson Ranch, Eloy/Casa Grande, AZ